Fully equipped camp sites are available at the North Carolina State Fairgrounds which is locally approx. five miles from downtown and the main event campus (RCC, PAC, Red Hat Amphitheater, etc). Drive time is an estimated 10-15 minutes depending upon time of day. There are 50 sites that are reserved there as a block for IBMA attendees, and there is a reservation-by-email process. The spots are spacious and in a new area of the fairgrounds which will accommodate an RV, easily including room for an additional vehicle.

Cost is $25 per night and includes full hook ups.

The reservation process is as follows: Call Claudine Davis/ NC State Fairgrounds at 919.839.4501 or email her at Claudine.davis@ncagr.gov ^[2]. Include in the subject of the email: "IBMA Raleigh 2013 RV". More sites will be added as needed and based upon availability. Note: it is an NCSU home football weekend and this location is near the stadium; reserving early is suggested!
